Your Name

Application ID

Victim's Name If different than above

Unfortunately, Government Code section 13953 states that an application for compensation must be filed within three years of: the date of the crime, after the victim turns 21, or the victim had reasonable knowledge of the crime. Additionally, minor victims of a sexual offense have until their 28th birthday to file an application.

While the law stipulates that applications should be filed within this timeframe, it also allows for CalVCB to review and consider applications that are submitted late. The information you provide will help us determine if we may accept your application for demonstrated good cause. Please complete and return this form and any supporting documentation or crime-related bills to the address below:
